

ProPartners Wealth Holds a Successful Vet Networking Event for Independent Clinic Owners and MU-CVM Students

ProPartners Wealth, the AVMA LIFE representative for the University of Missouri, organized and facilitated the 2nd annual ProPartners Wealth Veterinary Networking Event on September 10, 2022, at the MU Health Care Pavilion at Columbia's Urban Agricultural Park. Over 150 veterinary medical students and 28 veterinary clinic owners from around Missouri participated. Networking event participants were treated to a meal catered by PeachTree Catering and Hokulia shave ice and entertainment by local band, Slow Leak.

ProPartners Wealth and their signature sponsors, Bank of America, IDEXX, J. Hooker Construction, Boehringer Ingelheim, Williams Keepers, AVMA LIFE, and AVMA PLIT, leveraged the relationships they have built with Midwest veterinary clinic owners and their partnerships with the University of Missouri College of Veterinary Medicine to promote the event. In addition, ProPartners was honored to welcome AVMA Trust Student Services Representative Dr. Rebecca Stinson and MVMA Executive Director Julie Braun to the event. It was wonderful to have them participate and see our work with students and clinic owners in action!

ProPartners Wealth is proud to announce that the generosity of local clinic owners resulted in $30,000 in scholarships awarded to veterinary students during the event to help further their studies. Additionally, the event created opportunities for students to meet members of their future profession; learn what clinic ownership is like; understand and explore connections with strategic partners in the financial, equipment, and real estate industries; and open doors to potential externship possibilities. ProPartners would like to thank their staff, partners, clinic owners, and participants for an evening that was a resounding success.

ProPartners Wealth is an independent fiduciary advisor firm. Their innovative team and processes analyze qualitative and quantitative data to coach independent clinic owners to new heights in their business and personal lives.
